Eight Verses on Śrī Sārādā Devī

O Goddess with the gracious smile, O Avatar of compassion, you shine with divine glow. O Mother of the three worlds, you take care of our welfare and remove our fear. O Mother, dwell forever in the lotus of my heart. 1

O embodiment of Brahman, most beautiful and auspicious one, our refuge, you grant spiritual awakening and take us across the ocean of this world. You are purity itself, the granter of peace and the destroyer of misery. O Mother, dwell forever in the lotus of my heart. 2

Knower of Vedanta, you are the Ultimate Reality. The essence of shruti, you have no beginning, middle, or end. You are prakrti, the One without a second. O Mother, dwell forever in the lotus of my heart. 3

O Adored One, out of playfulness, you have assumed a human body which is made of Divine Consciousness. You are the shakti that creates, sustains, and destroys the universe. O Mother, dwell forever in the lotus of my heart. 4

You give boons of renunciation and devotion. Source of beneficence and peace, you are Immortality itself. You are the Highest Knowledge, the bridge that takes us beyond the three worlds. O Mother, dwell forever in the lotus of my heart. 5

O soul of the universe, O supremely beautiful and sanctifying one, you dispel the darkness of our delusion and grant us liberation. The refuge of all, who drive away all fear, you are the ultimate goal of all. O Mother, dwell forever in the lotus of my heart. 6

A living Goddess, filled with Ramakrishna, you are the realization of His essence. You are none other than he. You are the light and energy of the Ramakrishna-flame. O Mother, dwell forever in the lotus of my heart. 7

You are the enlightenment that brings the joy of existence, consciousness, and bliss. Ruler of the universe, protector of the devotee, you bring the ultimate fulfillment. O Sri Sarada, your divine form sanctifies the earth. O Mother, dwell forever in the lotus of my heart. 8
